National Activities and Events

Check out the NAW website http://www.naw.org.nz/whats_on/index.html for lots more events and links.

Critiquing website

Here is the link to the Critiquing website Russell referenced in his talk at the last meeting.

<http://www.woodturnersunlimited.com/index.php/critiques>

The critiques he used were

- Maiden Voyage (this is the first critique)
- 2 – Dane Fuller
- 3 – David Keller
- 18 - Tony Cheyne

I recommend you take the time to look through the other critiques for inspiration.

Taupo Jamboree

From Russell Barnes,

Some comments on this year's jamboree for the newsletter.

This year only 2 members of the Guild, Geoff and I, made the trip up to Taupo. The event was again held at the Spa Hotel in a large shed. This shed also holds the club rooms of the Taupo Wood Workers.

The event started at 10am on the Friday and by the time I arrived in the mid afternoon it was getting hard to find a space. This year there were about 70 people there most had lathes but there were also people carving, scroll sawing and airbrushing.

There were a couple of suppliers in attendance and the Taupo Guild was selling wood for those who didn't have enough with them or at home.

This year all the catering except for the Saturday evening meal was done by the Taupo Guild. They did a great job, we even had barbequed food for Sunday lunch.

Guilio Marcologo from Australia attended, and on Saturday he demonstrated making boxes among other things. Note he has demonstrated in NZ previously.

Many articles were turned over the weekend by participants and the judges on Saturday had a hard job picking the winners. Geoff received an honourable mention for the 50 honey dippers he turned.

Note in the photos (next page) the large lathes that were brought down from Auckland, one wasn't enough, there were three of them. They were a bit too large for the car and I would never get them in the shed!

The weather was kind, the company enjoyable and we had a great time. What more could you ask.

Home Group News

Frank Torrance Group (meet on Thursdays)

Our Home Workshop Group Met at Bill Parkinson's home on Thursday 6 March and we enjoyed sitting in his dining room looking out on his beautiful garden.

Not quite a full house but a good muster . Bill and Brian had some goodies to show off. Bill had several wig stands and some bowls in Macrocarpa, one in the turning process kept showing small cracks - most annoying!!!

Our April meeting will be with Tony Buder.

Another enjoyable chatter morning.

Wig Stands:

Hi Russell,

While this blog is a bit long to reproduce there is a bit further under "wiggling out" which could perhaps be reproduced for the newsletter and maybe a link to the whole article on the website. Over to you.

We have so far supplied Leigh with 70 blocks a combination from Kapiti, Wellington and Wairarapa. We have 75 sitting in our lounge ready to go and are expecting some any day from Kapiti Lancewood – April 2014 - Issue 101

Wairarapa. I was absolutely delighted when Graeme arrived home with so many blocks from your last meeting, it is amazing and I know Leigh and her clients are extremely grateful and humbled by the generosity of the members. I would expect Leigh will need around 400 this year and we certainly will be well on the way when we get this next lot in to her.

We are so fortunate to have been able to source the wood this has certainly made it an achievable goal to supply enough for this year at least.

Pauline McIntyre

And Finally

Paddy is doing some roofing work for Murphy. He nears the top of the ladder and starts shaking and going dizzy. He calls down to Murphy and says "I tink I will ave to go home, I've come all over giddy and feel sick."

Murphy asks "Ave yer got vertigo?"

Paddy replies "No I only lives round the corner."
