Message from the Editor

This is the last edition of Lancewood that I will edit and send out. Sorry guys but like a few past editors I have just run out of steam and ideas. If you would like to become the new Editor please let me know. Main requirements are ability to write stuff and insert pictures, using Word or similar program.

Until a new editor is elected/appointed there will just be an email with the next meeting notice and a few details on the web site <http://www.kwwg.org.nz/>. If you have For Sale or Wanted adverts I am happy to put a few lines on the web site for a month. Likewise if local Groups would like their meetings notified on the web I can put them up either as a one off or a Regular eg "1st Mon of the month" entry. In either case just send me email to john.talbot@xtra.co.nz with your copy.

The Manawatu Open Day By Russell Barnes:

The Manawatu Open Day was held on Sunday the 11 May. All 9 Guilds from the lower North Island were represented this year. It was good to see Taupo attending again.

I am sorry to say the Kapiti Guild didn't win any prizes this year. Wanganui won the Colt Trophy (lathe competition) and the 5 minute woodworking challenge. Wellington won the table prize.

Our turning team was Jim Lowe, Brian Arthurs, Bill Parkinson, Phil Quinn, John Wysocki, Graeme McIntyre. Phil Quinn and Geoff Greenfield were our team for the 5 minute challenge.

This year the event covered about double the space of previous years. A whole new area was opened for the trade displays and consequently there were lots of goodies to tempt the opening of the wallets. This year there was Terry Scott, Smith Piling (Carbatec agents in Palmerston North), Bill Owen from Oamaru, Jim Lowe (selling Sorby stock cheap!), Treeworks and Capital Books.

A good time was had by all.
A few pictures follow with some familiar faces.

Coastlands Sale Days

As discussed at the last meeting we had proposed to hold a weekend sale days at Coastland Mall.

Only 4 members expressed an interest in selling items and manning the stall. As this is well below the 10 the committee had indicated were required. We have cancelled the booking.
